Description: Parades are a visual presentation of the military discipline, professionalism, and teamwork necessary to succeed as a member of the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps and have been a part of Naval Academy training since its establishment in 1845. The Brigade of Midshipmen marches from Bancroft Hall to the Naval Academy parade field, Worden Field, accompanied by the Naval Academy Band and the midshipmen Drum & Bugle Corps. On Worden Field, the Brigade performs the manual of arms, renders honors to the senior officer or civilian dignitary present, and passes in review before the official party and guests.

- See bus schedule at 1971.usnaclases.net for round trip transportation to and from Alumni Hall from the DoubleTree and Crowne Plaza Hotels for the Superintendent's Address and Formal Parade.
- Classmates and guests should be in their seats by 1550.
- There will be a special seating section in the bleachers for members of the Class of 1971 and their guests. Members of the Alumni Association will direct classmates and guests to the special seating section.
